

O Center Of Our Life And Love

ST. ANNE

Kathleen Pluth

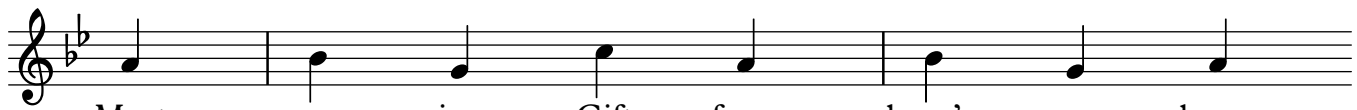

William Croft, 1677–1727

1. O Cen - ter of our life and love,
2. And we are brought in peace as one,
3. The Lord, though rich, has be - come poor,
4. O Sac - ra - ment in which we live,
5. Stay with us when the night is near,
6. O Fa - ther, Son, and Spir - it blest,

Our Eu - cha - ris - tic Lord,
Like branch - es on the vine,
To lift us to the skies;
Our gain, all else but loss,
The end of earth - ly day:
We praise you, Trin - i - ty,

Most pre - cious Gift from heav'n a - bove,
As we con - fess one Lord a - lone,
Our sins up - on the Cross He bore,
Teach us to hon - or, love, for - give,
Re - move our doubt, re - pel our fear,
Our gra - cious Host, our sav - ing Guest,

Your Flesh and Blood out - poured!
The Son of God di - vine.
That we with Him might rise.
And bear each oth - er's cross.
And lead us on our way.
Our life, our U - ni - ty.
