

God Our Father, Ever Dwelling

HYFRYDOL

Kathleen Pluth

Rowland H. Prichard, 1811–1887

1. God our Fa - ther, ev - er dwell - ing In Your realm of love and
2. Je - sus, wed - to hu - man na - ture In the Vir - gin Moth - er's
3. Ho - ly Spir - it, pledge of heav - en, Lord of life and boundless
4. Tri - une God, the great Thrice - ho - ly, Fa - ther, Son, and Spir - it light, Bend - ing down to lift cre - a - tion By Your end - less womb, Rais - ing hu - man na - ture high - er By Your ris - ing sway, You Who filled the twelve a - pos - tles On that Pen - te - blest, Al - ways call - ing us to glo - ry, To e - ter - nal, pow'r and might, Thank You for Your great - est bless - ing from the tomb, Thank You, Lord, for stay - ing with us cos - tal day, Thank You for the gift of priest - hood, hap - py rest, Thank You for Your plan to give us

O - ver all the earth out - poured: Je - sus Christ, the
As the night is draw - ing near. You, the Eu - cha - Men who stand in Je - sus' place, Mak - ing pre - sent That a - bun - dant life You share, From the Eu - cha -

Word In - car - nate, Here, our Eu - cha - ris - tic Lord.
rist most ho - ly, Ev - er - pre - sent, You are here.
sa - cred mys - t'ries: Gifts of sac - ra - men - tal grace.
rist to heav - en, When we see Your pres - ence there.

Words ©2023 Kathleen Pluth

This hymn text may be used freely during the Parish Year of Revival, June 11, 2023–July 21, 2024.

It may be set to other tunes and harmonized as desired.

<https://kathleenpluth.com>